Splice Sleeve North America, Inc. Welcomes New Staff Member

Splice Sleeve North America, Inc. is pleased to announce that a new staff member, Brian Thompson, has joined our team as Project Engineer. He strives to improve both technical and customer service at SSNA.

Brian will be attending the upcoming PCI Convention in Washington, DC from September 6-9, to meet and welcome our long-time and prospective customers. Please stop by our booth #342 to make his acquaintance.

Brian Tavish Thompson

Brian earned his Bachelors of Science in Mechanical Engineering degree from The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI in May of 2013. Before moving back to Michigan and joining SSNA, Brian worked as a Civil Engineer in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Brian's main responsibilities include:

- Lead all technical and engineering matters for NMB Slice Sleeve System
- Make technical presentations while promoting good business relationships to existing and potential clients
- Offer site training for grouting work of NMB Proprietary Grout
- Work with relevant authorities to obtain certifications of products.
